The ID. family is growing: In Shanghai a new concept car shows the electric full-size SUV of the future

- The ID. ROOMZZ<sup>1)</sup> will be showcased at Auto Shanghai 2019
- Sneak-preview of what to expect from the series version
- Seamless design: the puristic, flowing style of the zero-emission SUV puts power in proportion Wolfsburg (D) – The Volkswagen Brand celebrates the world premiere of the ID. ROOMZZ<sup>1)</sup> at Auto Shanghai, one of China's biggest car shows. The multi-variable all-round model is the next member of the ID. family and gives you a taste of what is to come in the upcoming series version of the zero-emission SUV that will hit the Chinese market first in 2021. Auto Shanghai will have its doors open from April 16th to April 24th 2019.

ID. Family with the I.D. ROOMZZ

The I.D. ROOMZZ<sup>1)</sup> has a number of innovations on board: as its name suggests, the concept car sets trendsetting impulses when it comes to variability of the vehicle interior, boasting completely new seat configurations, high-quality materials and customizable light. What is more, the IQ.DRIVE systems are brought together in the I.D. ROOMZZ<sup>1)</sup>: in I.D. Pilot mode, the vehicle can be driven autonomously without an active driver (level 4).
